Fr. Danny Murphy – All Saints Day, November 01, 2015

Sentences from some of the Saints:

St. Paul: Romans 8:28

"For those who love God, everything works for the good."

-If we believe that, "Serenity replaces Stress..."

St. John of the Cross:

"In the evening of life we will be judged on one thing, on one thing only: how well we have loved"

-There are two tragedies in life: to live and not to love and to love and not express that love.

St. Teresa of Avila

"Let nothing disturb you, nothing."

-Do you have inner peace?

St. Francis de Sales

"I would prefer to go to hell being too lenient than being too severe."

-How do you treat others? How do you treat yourself?

-Do you give others the benefit of the doubt? Yourself?

St. Francis of Assisi

"Lord, make me an instrument of your peace..."

-How can we each be channels of peace, to reconcile, to unite?

The SERIES

God loves baseball, so much in fact, that he sponsored a game in heaven. The first batter was LOVE who got a single, because love never fails. The second batter was FAITH, who also got a single because FAITH and LOVE go together. WISDOM was next up but she walked on four pitches because WISDOM never swings at anything bad. Next up was GRACE who hit a grand slam home run – the longest in the history of the heaven league. God commented that in the game of life, LOVE, FAITH, and WISDOM will get you on base, but MY GRACE will bring you home!

In baseball the goal is to BEAT others; in life, the goal is to HELP others.

If we have THAT goal – EVERYONE wins.
